Arrangements to Honor the Nation's Hero Well Started.

REPRESENTATIVE CITIZENS

Representatives of all that is best in the national capital gathered in Willard Hall last night to organize for the purpose of giving an appropriate reception to the nation's hero, Admiral Dewey, upon his arrival here in the autumn. The gentlemen who assembled had been selected by the Commissioners of the District at the invitation of the board of trade to undertake this important enterprise and prepare plans in accordance with its significance. They were members of the committee of one hundred, and it was most gratifying to note that of all who had been chosen but two had regretfully found it impossible to serve, and of the remainder every one was present or accounted for.

The meeting was called to order by District Commissioner Wight, who stated that the Commissioners had given considerable thought and care to the selection of the Following the election of officers John Joy Edson presented resolutions, which were adopted, authorizing Chairman Moses to appoint an executive committee, to consist of the officers and the chairmen of subcommittees and other members, not exceed twenty-one in all, and to also ppoint the chairmen of such subcommittees as may be necessary, and after con-sultation with said chairmen to appoint the members of those committees, subject to the approval of the general committee. A motion was carried to make the Commissioners of the District ex-officio members of the committee.

Motions that the committee cable Admiral Dewey notification of the proposed recep-tion and to create the Commissioners a committee to call on Secretary Long and request him to cable Admiral Dewey and request that he first land upon American soil at Washington were referred to the executive committee for consideration. An informal interchange of views on features of the proposed reception was par-ticipated in by several of the gentlemen present, and after a vote of thanks had been extended to Mr. Staples for the use of the hall, the meeting adjourned, subject to the call of Chairman Moses.

 SENTENCED TO BE HANGED

INDEX TO ADVERTISEMENTS.

George W. Horton to Suffer the Penalty of His Crime.

-An Appeal Taken to Higher Tribunal.

Justice Clabaugh, in Criminal Court No.

1, this afternoon sentenced George W. Horton, formerly a member of the metropolimurder of Mrs. Jane Nicholson, to be the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 2 o'clock After Assistant District Attorney Shillington had moved for sentence the prisoner arose from his seat and Justice Clabaugh inquired: "George W. Horton have you anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon you?" "Nothing," was the calm reply. Justice Clabaugh thereupon announced the date for the execution. Horton proceeded to the cells below the court room without displaying the slightest sign of emotion. The imposition of sentence was preceded by an argument in support of the motion for a new trial filed in behalf of Horton. Attorney Robert W. Wells addressed the court. The latter remarked that the matter at issue was entirely clear to him, and the motion was overruled, Attorneys Jef-fords and Voorhees and Assistant District Attorneys Shillington and Laskey made no remarks. An appeal to the Court of Appeals was noted by counsel for the defendant.

COUNCIL ORDERS ELECTION. Takoma Park Citizens to Vote on Water Works Question. The town council of Takoma Park held a meeting last night, when matters of genamong them being the subject of water works and sewers.

The regular order of business was at first dispensed with, and the council sat as a Belt of Baltimore, scribe. Mr. Geo. A. L. beard of review, to hear appeals and comreal and personal property in the town for the fiscal year 1899-1900. Messrs. Geo. A. Warren and J. B. Kinnear were the assessors, and but very few complaints of excessive taxation were made. Considerable time was taken up in relation to finances, the bills, as prepared by the finance committee, being finally dis-

Attention was called by Mayor O'Driscoll to the condition of Sligo avenue, and he requested that an appropriation be made to protect the work from washes. The chair-man of the committee on streets, Mr. Lung, stated that Sligo avenue would be looked A communication was read relative to certain improvements which are necessary in the Maryland part of the Park. The report of the board of assessors, flxing the rate of taxation at sixty cents on each $100, was adopted by the council. The committee appointed to ascertain the cost of operating a system of water works reported that in its judgment a gasoline engine will be cheaper for the purpose of pumping water than either steam or tric motor. The committee submitted figures from Edwin Mitchell, civil engineer

Baltimore, Md.; the Otto Gas Engine Com-pany, Mr. E. L. Marlow of the United States Electric Power Company, and sevthe council, as a result of a great deal of discussion and investigation, which has been going on during the past year, at its m eting last night authorized that an election be held by the people of the town, when they can express their views relative to whether or not they want to bond the tewn and put in the water works and sew-

The ordinance was passed in accordance with an act of the state legislature of Maryland, in 1898, known as the Gould bill, and stipulates that the debt of the town shall not exceed $40,000 for the purpose of water works and sewers.

The election will be held Monday, July 3, Messrs. J. Vance Lewis, E. E. Blodgett and Norman H. Brainard to be the judges.
